FOR RELEASE MARCH 5, 1998

AWARDS RECEPTION SCHEDULED

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University's Women's Advocacy Council will host its annual awards reception on Wednesday, March 11, at 7 p.m. in the Tarble Arts Center on the EIU campus.

At the reception, winners of the Women's Advocacy Council's Annual Writing and Women of Achievement Awards will be honored. This year the student actresses who performed as part of the living history program in the local schools will also be recognized.

The year's winner of the essay contest is junior journalism major Kelli Quinn of Henry for her essay, "The Bad Women of the Enchanted Forest." Honorable mentions will go to senior English major Amanda Davis of Mt. Vernon for her essay, "In Search of the Goddess," and to senior English major Jackie McGrath of Oak Forest for her essay, "Excerpts from the Other Half."

The winners of the Women of Achievement Awards are Christina Hardin of Charleston, a student at Eastern, Margaret Hollowell of Charleston and Cathie Reynolds of Ashmore.

All members of the university community and the public are invited to the awards reception.

At the reception, refreshments will be served, and entertainment will be provided by the EIU Dancers.
